

The Florida Dharma Film Festival

14 films! Two Central Florida venues! Free admission!

Fri, Sat - March 23, 24, 2012 :: WindHorse Theatre, Eustis

Fri, Sat - March 30, 31, 2012 :: First Congregational Church, Winter Park

The Chenrezig Project of Central Florida, in conjunction with the WindHorse Theatre (Eustis) and the First Congregational Church of Winter Park is pleased to present the 3rd annual Florida Dharma Film Festival (FLharma), bringing to the community a variety of films encouraging sensibilities of wisdom, peace and compassion.

The festival provides Florida audiences with opportunities to discover thought-provoking films that communicate and share the beauty of Tibetan Buddhist culture and spirituality, as well as practical issues beneficial to meaningful life in the West.

We will be screening 14 films, chosen from a large catalog of works. Films screening (subject to change):

WindHorse Theatre: Friday, March 23 (all times PM)

7:00 - 7:50 The Lion's Roar - A profile of the 16th Karmapa Lama . . . features rare footage.

8:10 - 10:15 Fearless - A man's personality is dramatically changed after surviving an airline crash . . . Jeff Bridges, Peter Weir (dir)

WindHorse Theatre: Saturday, March 24

12:00 - 1:30 10 Questions for the Dalai Lama - If you had only one hour, what would you ask?

1:50 - 3:20 Saint Misbehavin' - An unforgettable trip through the life of the Bodhisattva Clown, Wavy Gravy.

4:00 - 5:45 Buddha's Lost Children - A monk, hungry and sick children, a true story filmed in Thailand's Golden Triangle.

7:00 - 7:45 Tibetan Book of the Dead - An old lama and his novice monk guide a Ladakh villager into the after-life.

8:10 - 9:55 Enlightenment Guaranteed - A brilliant comedy about impermanence, reality, compassion and self-discovery.

Congregational Church: Friday, March 30 (all times PM)

7:00 - 8:10 The Devotion of Matthieu Ricard - A look at the brilliant teacher, translator, photographer and scientific researcher.

8:30 - 10:20 12 Angry Men - The classic Sidney Lumet film of dharma practice in the jury room led by (Bodhisattva) Henry Fonda.

Congregational Church: Saturday, March 31

12:00 - 1:15 Tulku - You're the reincarnation of your father's teacher . . . now what?

1:35 - 3:15 Recalling a Buddha - Memories of the 16th Karmapa Lama, one of the 20th Century's great spiritual leaders.

3:30 - 5:00 How to Cook Your Life - A Zen master and renowned chef guides students through the mastery of cooking.

6:00 - 7:20 The Sun Behind the Clouds - A provocative and potent look at Tibet's struggle for freedom.

7:45 - 10:00 Little Buddha - Bertolucci's take on reincarnation and the life of the Buddha. With Keanu Reeves, Bridget Fonda.

This is a free event, a gift to the Central Florida community from the many people and organizations involved. Accordingly, we do expect to reach full capacity.

To ensure a seat for your films of choice, advance tickets are available online at <http://flharma.eventbrite.com>.

For more info, e-mail to info@chenrezigproject.org or call (352) 324-3419.